ORATORS IN AN ALMOST

League Leaders Saved by Splendid Spurt in Final Period of Play.

Tommy Kane, after pitching a splendid game, and scoring three runs in the eighth inning with a beauty two bagger, apparently putting the game on ice, weakened in the ninth stanza, only to see the Senators gather in three runs, which was just enough to win the contest. It was both a heart breaker for the Orators to lose and for the fans to see them go under, as they considered the game won. Satisfaction came their way after the fourth session when "Hack" Schuman, who has bothered them on many an occasion, was sent to the stables after Hilt had made a three bagger from him. Lefty Levensen was sent in, doing well till the eighth, when three more runs were gleamed, the game being, as it was thought, placed on the shelf. Twice the Orators had the game sewed up, and twice they had it taken away from them. An attempt was made to even up matters in the ninth, but a double play spoiled all chances.

The Senators should have scored in the opening session, and would have only for the dumb base running of Savage. That player was first up and walked. Wanner was second and hit and saved on second on Wanner's hit to Hilt, which was beaten out. Hart advanced both runners a base when third was thrown out. Schmalz to Bunyan. Flourroy sent a long fly to Bunyan which George smothered. Savage did not hold his base till the sphere was scored. Foy George saw the trick and threw to third, the ump calling Savage out. Schmalz led off the third with a single to center. He was thrown out at second when Kocher hit to Justice. Kocher was out trying to steal. Payne struck out.

The fourth is where the Orators branched ahead. Steinhauser was hit with the ball. Bannan self-killed. Steinhauser going to second and scoring on Hilt's three bagger to left. Ladd batted a hot grounder off Conner's knees, being caught at first. Hilt scored. Miller let drive the fly. It was one, two, three for each team till the seventh. In this session Flourroy led off with a double. Conner duplicated scoring Flourroy. McKenna hit to left, Conner going to third. Justice's hit to Kane had Conner at third, but McKenna was thrown out at second. Justice getting safe, and then stealing second. Levensen put his team one to the good on his hit to left, which scored Conner and Justice. Two outfield flies ended the scoring in that session. "The Orators went out in order in the half of the seventh, but came back strong in the eighth. Bunyan's liner to Justice was muffed. "Honest John" beating the throw to first. It seemed to take the heart out of Levensen as he passed both Schmalz and Kocher, filling the bases with none out. It was Kane's turn at the plate, the fans demanding that a hitter be sent in to do something, as the Orator pitcher had struck out on his former advances to the plate. The crowd was not heeded. Kane stuck his bat into the first ball pitched. To the surprise of the fans the sphere sailed over the infield between McKenna and Flourroy, and when it was returned Kane was on second and the bases had been cleared of the other runners. The score now stood 6-3, the grand stand and bleachers, which were well filled, going wild. Levensen lightened up a bit, striking

In this State, will toe the line for their lives that night. Each of these players has beaten each other, so it is going to be a red hot race from start to finish.

LIVE BASE BALL TIPS

Holyoke supposed to be here to-day.

The Papermakers have been here only twice this season when it did not rain or snow.

Double attraction to-morrow. Waterbury here for two games, the first being called at 2:30 o'clock.

The Orators have lost three of their last half dozen games by one run, two of the contests going for extra innings. The fans may well now say "hard luck."

The Orators demonstrated yesterday that with a good working pitcher they can play baseball. Tommy Kane is all right, and will do.

There is a wrangle on at present over Jimmy Savage of the Hartford club, the young man who broke up the game yesterday. The New York Americans want him, but Owner Clarkin will not part with the ex-Villanova captain as he claims he paid $300 for him.

Manager Clarkin of Hartford yesterday sent a check for $150 to President Tracy of the league to cover the fines levied in the game against Holyoke and a $5 fine tacked against Wadleigh. All the tributes with the exception of the fines of Wadleigh and Flourroy have been paid under protest.

Bill Yale, Bill Luby, Hack Schuman, Mason of New Britain, Old Dr. Bunyan, Cy McPartlin, Jerry Conner and Hilt are favorites all over the circuit. These players get a good hand wherever they go.

Louis Padrone, one of the Cubans who was on the Hanna staff last season has been signed by President Conner of the Chicago Americans. This season he has been playing in Cuba.

Eddie Havel has at last received the blue ticket from Manager Bone of the New Haven nine. Bone considers the day lost in which he does not sign or release a player.

It is rumored around the circuit that Pitcher Lindaman of the Boston Nationals is to be traded to Holyoke for Captain McCormack.

Pitcher Reilly has been released by Manager Hanna with the understanding that he will report next Spring. Reilly needs experience.

"Kid" Kocher got back into the game yesterday after a day's rest. The Kid injured one of the digits on his throwing hand in the double header with Hartford on Tuesday. Bunyan was sent in to do relief work against Holyoke.

Although the Orators did not hit the ball very hard yesterday, their savagery came in just where they were needed. Hilt's came when Steinhauser was on the station, while Kane's double sacker could not have come at a better time.

It was quite funny yesterday to hear the fans yell for Pollard to be sent in to bat for Kane in the eighth inning. Kane had pulled away from every ball pitched to him on his two former trips to the bat, striking out each time. On this occasion he waded into the pellet.

Whitmyer, the new pitcher just secured from the Reading Atlantic League club was on the bench yesterday. He was due to pitch against Holyoke this afternoon. He will be used in the first game to-morrow against Waterbury. Reilly, the other pitcher recommended by Freddie Gibbs was also on hand warming up. He is a big strapping fellow and looks the part.

All the State leagues say that Manager Jim has a fine player in Sweeney, the new second baseman secured from the Reading club. Sweeney has been wired transportation and will report to-day.

Hack Schuman will probably go against the Orators this afternoon and the big fellow will endeavor to keep up his record against O'Rourke's tribe. Hack has it on many of the teams and it is a long shot that he will beat Bridgeport—Hartford Times. "Hack" has seen his best days at Newfield.

W. J. Tracy, president of the Connecticut league has written Winkler, of Holyoke, as follows: "Allow me to congratulate you and the members of the Holyoke baseball club for the gentlemanly way you are conducting yourselves. It is a pleasure to think there is one club in the league that is not continually nagging the umpires. It goes to show that it is not necessary to adopt rowdy tactics to be successful. Furthermore, I believe if you continue on these lines, you will be at the top of the ladder when the going sounds."

WEBER DAY POSTPONED TILL MONDAY NEXT

Robert Weber cheerfully postponed the celebration of Weber Day at Steeplechase to-day until Monday next, when an even more attractive programme of entertainment will be provided. "We needed this rainy badly," he remarked this morning, "and while the postponement means money to me I can see the philosophy of the pitcher's box and the home plate blow good to somebody, and this rain means a great deal to the farmers." Three more days are allowed Mr. Weber and his managing steward Edward J. Madigan to prepare to give the public a festival of fun that will be unequalled in the history of the city. The plan on Monday for Weber Day and a bigger day than was originally provided for will be the result. New attractions will be arranged for the meantime and the admission fee to the island of a dime will cover everything.

WORLD'S CHAMPION, JOHN J. FLANAGAN, WILL BE ON HAND So Will Martin Sheridan Olympic Winner-Big Athletic Meet at Steeplechase Aug. 21.

The Irish day committee of the United field societies is being congratulated because of its being able to secure Martin Sheridan, the all around world's champion athlete who took seven first prizes in the Olympic games in London. But there were quite a few who doubted the claim of the committee that it would be able to secure John J. Flanagan, the champion hammer thrower of the world. Their opinions are not well grounded, however, for Col. T. J. Murphy of the committee received the following letter this morning:

ALDERMEN IN THEIR ELEMENT

Clam Bake and Other Festivities Provide Much Amusement.

Grappling Match Between Mayor Lee and City Clerk Buckingham Declared off Until Next November.

About 40 attended the Olympic games, clam bake, and balloon ascension of the Board of Aldermen at the Courtland Club in Black Rock yesterday afternoon. The Democratic aldermen defeated the Republican branch of that body in five innings of baseball 16 to 6. This score was realized despite the fact that the umpire, M. J. Reilly of the Herald gave several decisions against his own judgment in order to even things up. Alderman will be able to leave the bowl of the pipe in the dooryard and run the stem through the window of his home. City Clerk Buckingham gave Alderman Gough a lead of ten feet in a hand yard dash and beat him out by diving for the finishing line.

Alderman Bullard and Alderman Mahoney ran 100 yards in almost a dead heat. The Republican alderman won because he had cleeks on his shoes and the little alderman from the second had smooth soles.

Aldermen Cliff, Wilson and John Griffin ran 100 yards with the result that the Democratic caucus chairman won despite the fact that he celebrated his 41st birthday the day before. Alderman Wilson ran well although nature has endowed him with a protentional portico and he carried ballast in the form of a Mark Nagle clam-bake dinner.

"Billy" Mullins and Loren Delbridge ran what looked like a race but was in reality a frame up pure and simple. They crossed the tape together and split the mere pounds of tobacco and the clay pipes, the prizes.

Alderman Thomas won handily from Alderman Brock in a go as you please. There were two races for reporters. In the first "Ben" Conney of the Standard was the only starter who got away in good shape and he had the race to himself. In the second race Larry Gill made a noise like Chief Mooney's siren and the Farmer's first reporter galloped him 40 feet in the lead. The Herald's "Man of the Elevator" was second in spite of a spavin on both legs and H. E. E. played with the Republicans to help them out. Assistant City Clerk Gill pitched a great game for the winners.

As the game was played with an indoor baseball and bat Alderman Bullard created a new position in the game. He played half way between the pitcher's box and the home plate on his hands and knees. The game was a scream from start to finish and the players got a whole lot of sport out of it.

There were a large number of entries in the shot putting contest and Alderman Cassidy carried off the honors by putting the 12 pound weight 27 feet 1 inch. He beat Alderman McMurry by an inch. The prize in this contest was a handsome German cause of darkness. The prize was a dark green water wagon designed by Alderman Bullard. City Sheriff Thomas Cunningham was authorized to raise the lid under the auspices of the Law Enforcement Society. Nestled in the center of a bed of cracked ice in the cart were a half dozen bottles of ginger ale and a water melon. The contestants divided the prize.

Caterer Nagel was assisted in serving the dinner, which was of the first east by Aldermen Thomas, O'Connell and Brock.

DR. HUNTINGTON'S DAUGHTER RACING AGAINST DEATH

(Special from United Press.) New York, July 22.—After racing against death across the Atlantic, Miss M. W. Huntington, daughter of the Rev. R. W. Huntington of Grace Church, arrived on the Lusitania to-day and made a rush for New Mass., to speak another word with her father who physicians declare is dying of intestinal trouble. Miss Huntington was touring the continent when she received word of her father's precarious condition. She at once took the train for Liverpool and reached the Lusitania a few minutes before she started for New York.

When she arrived in New York this morning an automobile was awaiting and she was whisked to the Grand Central Station where she took a train for Nahant. Physicians declare Dr. Huntington's life has been prolonged only by the hope of seeing his daughter.

Mounted Police Please Strikers

(Special from United Press.) Newcasttle, Pa., July 23.—State Mounted Police of Troop D, under command of Captain Pitcher, are making an excellent impression here with the strikers. Captain Pitcher's refusal to allow the tin mill officers to parade the strike-breakers back and forth from one mill to the other greatly pleased the strikers. Pitcher looked upon such manoeuvres as probable causes of disorder and refused to permit it. Sheriff Addington to-day discharged the last of the 24 deputy sheriffs he swore in before the mounted police came as the latter are amply capable of handling the situation. No more is expected.

AMERICAN LEAGUE

Joe Doyle, generally a trouble maker for the Clevelanders, did the pitching for the Highlanders yesterday, and the latter shut out the Browns in a game cut to six innings because of rain. The New Yorks were the only Eastern team to win. The Detroiters whitewashed the Browns had a nine holes lost in Chicago and the Browns conquered the Washingtons. The results:

New York:	Cleveland:	St. Louis:	Washington:

NATIONAL LEAGUE

All of the ball playing done in the National League yesterday was costly for the Giants. There were only two games, but the Giants lost a game with the Boston in one and the Cubs defeated the Giants in the other. The New Yorks went back below the .500 mark and are 21 points below St. Louis and 59 below Chicago. The results:

Chicago:	New York:	Pittsburg:	Boston:	St. Louis:

Connecticut League

The Orators and the Senators played a "now you have it, and now you haven't" game yesterday, and when the totals were summed up, Hartford beat Bridgeport by a score of 10-0. New Britain enabled the Papermakers to keep up with the pace set by the league leaders, and still give them a big scare should they lose a game. New Britain again broke into the bigger class, Northampton this time being the goats. Fourth position in the race was settled for a time when the Authors trounced the Ponies on the latter's grounds. The results:

Hartford:	Bridgeport:	New Britain:	Northampton:	Authors:	Ponies:

Jeff Meets Johnson, Not Black Champion But Minnesota Governor

St. Paul, Minn., July 23.—James J. Jeffries and his sparring partner, Sam Berger, called on Gov. Johnson yesterday at the Capitol and were received cordially. The big fighter told the Governor that he was ready at any time now to defend his title as champion.

"You look fit to go in right now and almost anybody, I should say," remarked Gov. Johnson, as he took to the square-built form of the pugilist.

"You look like a man who could take care of himself all right," said Berger to the Governor.

"I should think I could," the Governor rejoined, laughing. "I would be willing to put up $1,000,000 on the table here and go into the next room with Mr. Jeffries, and let the one who comes out of the $1,000,000."

Jeffries laughed. "You might argue me out of it," he said.

The Governor asked Jeffries his age and weight. Jeffries said he weighed 255 now and had fought before at about 215, but weight did not bother him at all, and he was in fine shape.

"Are you going to defend your title there?" said Frank A. Day, the Governor's private secretary.

"Oh, yes," Jeffries replied. "I am going to fight again. I was glad to get out of the ring and did not want to get back, but I am back now and will fight Johnson."

One of the party suggested that the Jeffries-Johnson fight ought to come off in Minneapolis. Gov. Johnson laughed and said: "No, I'll draw the line there. You can't fight in Minnesota."

Barrett and Burke Race Monday

Dick Barrett and Harry Burke will give a race on Monday at Steeplechase Island Monday night at 8. Barrett and Burke being the two fastest skaters for their size
